San Javier Lodge

Argentinian Dove & Duck Combo Hunt for Two – Travel to beautiful Santa Fe, Argentina for three nights to truly experience South American wingshooting at the San Javier Lodge with Sporting Adventures International.

From cereal grain row crops, flooded rice fields, and lowland marshes that cradle the Parana River, this land provides the copious habitat for legendary dove populations and over 12 species of wintering ducks. Liberal limits rule the day and the hunting pressure is the only thing minimized on this landscape!

Traditionally, the hunting begins with an afternoon dove hunt following your arrival. Day two holds a first light dove hunt thru mid-morning and again at mid-afternoon. Day three starts with another early dove hunt followed by an afternoon shoot over a duck roost. Day four holds a morning duck hunt prior to departures.

This unique trip includes:

- Three nights lodging, three days hunting – six total hunts per hunter*
- Two days dove hunting and one day duck hunting*
- Transfers to and from the Santa Fe airport*
- All field guides, meals, rooming, transfers to and from the fields, beverages (alcoholic and non alcoholic)*

Not included: airfare, licenses (approx. $135 per person), gun permits, gun rental, shells, and tips. This package is valid for 2 guns only. The hunting schedule is subject to change based on arrival/departure times, weather, and highest potential hunting opportunities for each species. Sporting Adventures International reserves the right to accommodate non-hunting guest at an additional cost negotiated with Sporting Adventures International. Cost associated with these items are the responsibility of the purchaser. Trip dates are on a first come first serve basis, valid for the peak hunting dates of May 1st thru June 30th of the 2024 hunting season.*
